Alison closed the door of the small flat. It had been another exhausting day at the travel agency where she worked, and she was looking forward to being alone. There was an interesting programme she wanted to watch on TV later in the evening. She had just started preparing her dinner when there was knock at her door.

She took a deep breathe and said: "who might it be?" Then she opened a door and saw a very pretty woman, holding a small bag. "Hello, I've just moved to in house next to yours, so I'm your neighbour. I just wanted to meet you. My name is Jane!" she said. Then Jane proffered a small box. "It's a little present for you." "Oh, thanks. Nice to meet you. My name is Alison. Come in, I want to get to know you better." Despite, she was tired, Alison really liked the lady and she wanted to talk to her. The wish to be lonely had gone.

Soon ladies talked like old friends. They didn't even notice that it was already night. Alison was surprised that they were so similar in character and interests. They were ready to chat all night long but they had to get up early in the morning. So, Jane went home. Alison was very glad that she has such a good neighbour.
