The girl opened the door and looked around, but nobody was there. She was about to close the door when she suddenly noticed an envelope on the doormat. She quickly took it to the flat and opened it. Alison pulled out a letter. It was from her boss. She thought there was something about her work at the travel agency. But surprisingly her boss just praised her for working hard and prepared a surprise for her: a trip to Rome, that she had dreamed of all her life. In addition to the letter there was a ticket to Rome at exactly 9 a.m. tomorrow. Alison was so happy that minutes later she immediately started to pack her suitcase, forgetting about her dinner and the TV programme that she wanted to watch in the evening.

In a hour Alison was ready. She also wrote down all the sightings she wanted to visit. The adventures were looking forward for her in Rome.
